Mowry will take place at St. John's Church at 8 p.m., and Miss Louise Mitchell will give a dancing party for Miss Palms of Detroit. Between 12 and 3 today the rooms at the McLean building, corner of Vermont avenue and H street, were filled with the friends of the Garfield Hospital, lunching, and an afternoon tea and bazaar will be in progress from 5 until 10 the two contracting parties, for a more popular young couple it would be hard to find. The bride last night wore a handsome wedding gown of ivory white satin with duchesse lace. After the marriage ceremony and wedding supper the young couple left on an extended tour through the orthern cities. After January 15 Mr. and Mrs. Smith will be at home to their friends at No. 2039 15th street.

Princeton boys, and especially the members of the Glee and Banjo Club, were the lions of society in a great degree yesterday afternoon and evening. Mr. Joseph Mc-Cammon, who is the president of the Prince ton Alumni Association of this city, and Mrs. McCammon invited a very large company of young people to meet the club at their house from 4 to 6. After the concert these young gentlemen again had the pleasure of meeting some delightful acquaint-ances at the dance given in their honor by Mrs. J. Thomson Swann at her residence, 1415 I street. Mrs. Swann's summer home at Princeton is as well known to every wearer of the black and yellow as the college halls themselves. Those of them who enjoy the entree to her hospitalities remember it as one of the most acceptable of the pleasures afforded them during their college career. Mrs. Swann is only back here a week or two. Her house last night was most attractively decorated with flowers and the Princeton colors. There were excellent music, a superb supper, loads of pretty girls in the daintiest of toilets, plenty partners and every detail to make the occasion the perfect success which Mrs. Swann invariably makes of her entertainments.

Mrs. Wheeler, wife of Gen. Wheeler of Alabama, with her daughters, has arrived in the city and has apartments at the Arno. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Parker, 1115 4th street northwest, was the scene of a pretty wedding last evening, that of their daughter Mattie to Mr. Wilber C. Stuart. The bride entered the rooms upon the arm of her father and met the groom under an archway of flowers, from which there was suspended a handsome floral bell. The ceremony was performed by Father Fletcher. The bride was richly gowned in ivorytinted satin, with garnitures of lace and lilies of the valley. She wore a tulle vell caught up with lilies of the valley and carried an immense bouquet of the same. Her mother was attired in a handsome black bengaline silk. The wedding march was executed by Miss Mary Collins. Among those present were Mrs. Rouse, Mr. and Mrs. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. C. Stuart, the Misses Stuart, Mrs. Bingham and daughter, Mrs. Roefer and Mrs. Griffin and daughters.
